Is the wedding ceremony legally/religiously binding?

The wedding ceremony is symbolic in nature and not legally or religiously binding. In addition, while we do provide the venue & set up, we do not provide the programme, script, emcee & marriage celebrant for the ceremony - these items are planned by the bride & groom. If you require assistance with these items, kindly bring it up during the planning process and we will do our best to assist you.

I have over 100 guests. Will Bintan Spa Villa be able to accomodate all my guests?

We are able to accomodate up to 120 guests for the wedding dinner. However our rooms are only able to accomodate up to 90-100 guests. The rest of your guests can be conveniently arranged to stay at our neighbour resort (just minutes away), and we will assist your guests with the room bookings during the planning process. Free shuttle service will be provided between the resorts on the wedding day for the convenience of your guests.

What are the wet weather precautions?

In the case of wet weather, guests will take up the indoor seating areas instead.

Can i organize a site inspection?

We strongly encourage you to make a trip down to Bintan Spa Villa to take a look at the venue for yourself. We believe it will greatly aid in your planning process. Our manager on site will be more than happy to give you a tour of the resort and discuss with you your wedding plans. You may also choose to arrange a virtual meeting with our Singapore Team to find out more. Simply contact us to do so.
